

- Understanding the problem you are trying to solve
- Understanding the capabilities of available ai tools
- breaking down complex work into smaller parts
- making strategic decisions about who does what
- choosing the right mode of interaction

WHAT AM I TRYING TO DO?

Key takeaways

The Delegation competence is critical to effective and efficient AI use

You need to use your own expertise to decide what is worth doing and to leverage the unique strengths of both human and artificial intelligence